To Dr. Warren Stone Gordis who has given to Stetson the devotion of a lifetime—the enthusiasm of youth, the energies of middle life, and the wisdom of age—we dedicate this book with deep respect, gratitude and affection.

DR. WARREN STONE GORDIS

The President's Message

This has been an important year. A year of achievement. A year of decision.

It has been a year of new experiences for me, just as it has for many of you. Your friendliness, your patience and your understanding, toward me and my family, can never be forgotten.

Some of you will leave us in a few weeks. As you leave, understand that a part of the school will go with you, and that you will leave a part of yourself with the school. You cannot forget us. Neither can we help remembering you.

As the years come and go, and you return to the campus—to visit places, around which you associate pleasant memories—to talk to teachers whose personalities became a part of you, you will find Stetson still serving young men and women.

I hope you will want to have a part in building the school you have dreamed and talked about. Remember, Stetson belongs to those who serve her.

I send official greetings to Stetson men and women everywhere.

Cordially yours,
J. Ollie Edmunds

The Student Bar

The Student Bar Association consists of the entire membership of the Law School. Its purpose is to provide a unified association of students enrolled in the College of Law, with a view toward maintaining a closer relationship among the students of the various classes and between the individual student and the administration. The Association endeavors to promote the interests of the students individually and collectively, and to provide a measure of self government for the members of the law school. It seeks to further develop an atmosphere of cooperation and better understanding between students and faculty.

The officers of the student bar are: Murray Sams, president; Warren H. Horton, vice president; Jack Inman, social vice president; John Evans, secretary; and Joe Price, treasurer.

Honor Court

The Honor Court has the responsibility of promoting an effective educational campaign against those things which are beneath the dignity of the law and the position which it occupies in our American form of government. The Honor Court serves as a court for the trial of infractions and the recommendation of punishment in cases of guilt. The court consists of seven justices, two of which are from the freshman and junior classes, and three from the senior law classes. The chief justice is elected from the seven justices.

The Honor Court this year is led by Chief Justice Mel Orfinger. Other justices are senior representatives Hugh DuVal and William Brewster, junior representatives Smith Sanborn and Dan Murphy, and freshmen representatives Mack Cleveland and Robert T. Wilson.

Phi Delta Phi was founded on December 13, 1869, at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan. It thus became the first legal, as well as the first professional, fraternity to be founded in the United States. Throughout the years, the fraternity, among whose members are to be found many of the truly great legal and political leaders of the past two generations, has constantly strived to promote a higher standard of professional ethics and culture in law schools and in the profession at large.

The Stetson chapter of Phi Delta Phi, Cordozo Inn, was formally installed on December 5, 1947, after its petition was accepted by the National Convention in September, 1947. Now in its second year the Inn has greatly expanded, as has Stetson College of Law, and in the years to come Cordozo Inn will endeavor to continually perpetuate the high ideals of Phi Delta Phi.

The 1949 Stetson REPORTER

The Editor: "The name is Davis."

The STETSON REPORTER, "Florida's Oldest College Newspaper," began its 62nd Year under the editorship of Felton P. Davis, Jr., and the business management of Phil DeBerard, Jr., whose elections marked a change from faculty selection to these top posts of the weekly newspaper to a choice by the students.

Davis brought to the campus a new trend in Stetson journalistic history that endeavored to foster a more active and better Student Government; to provide an outlet through the REPORTER for all student opinion; and in the words of the editor, "to let the chips fall where they may. We print news and when it comes to publishing a newspaper we have no special friends." The REPORTER dove fearlessly into all controversial issues, always presenting both sides, and never allowing student politics to enter into its viewpoint.

To give the University a prompt, up-to-date and colorful coverage of campus news a change was made to the popular tabloid size paper; the staff was streamlined for efficient reporting; and the REPORTER moved into completely new editorial offices.

Special editorial editors, under the leadership of Managing Editor Bill Towne, made publication of the REPORTER a well-oiled and smooth-running organization. Special editors are: Mary Selman, Dayton Andrews, Tex Sloan, Pat Roberts, Betty Schneider, Ted Grissett and Circulation Manager Ret Turner.

Women's Recreation Association

Betty Miller, President

President Betty Miller
Sponsor Miss Eloise Newell

Previously this organization was known as the Women's Athletic Association. Through its membership the intra-mural program for women is carried on. Because of the increased enrollment, a change was needed to reach a majority of the students. A separate intra-mural board was set up and Women's Athletic association was changed to Women's Recreation association.

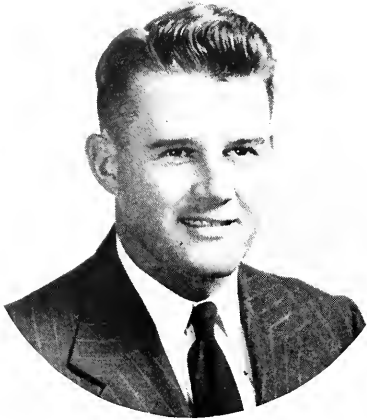

This organization is sponsoring different Sports' Clubs such as Tennis, Archery, Bowling and Riflery, which are co-recreational. One of these larger clubs is set up to help train men and women who are interestd in Camp Counselors' Training.

W.R.A.'s aim is to make a co-recreational association.

Congratulations to the Graduating Class

JOHN B. STETSON UNIVERSITY

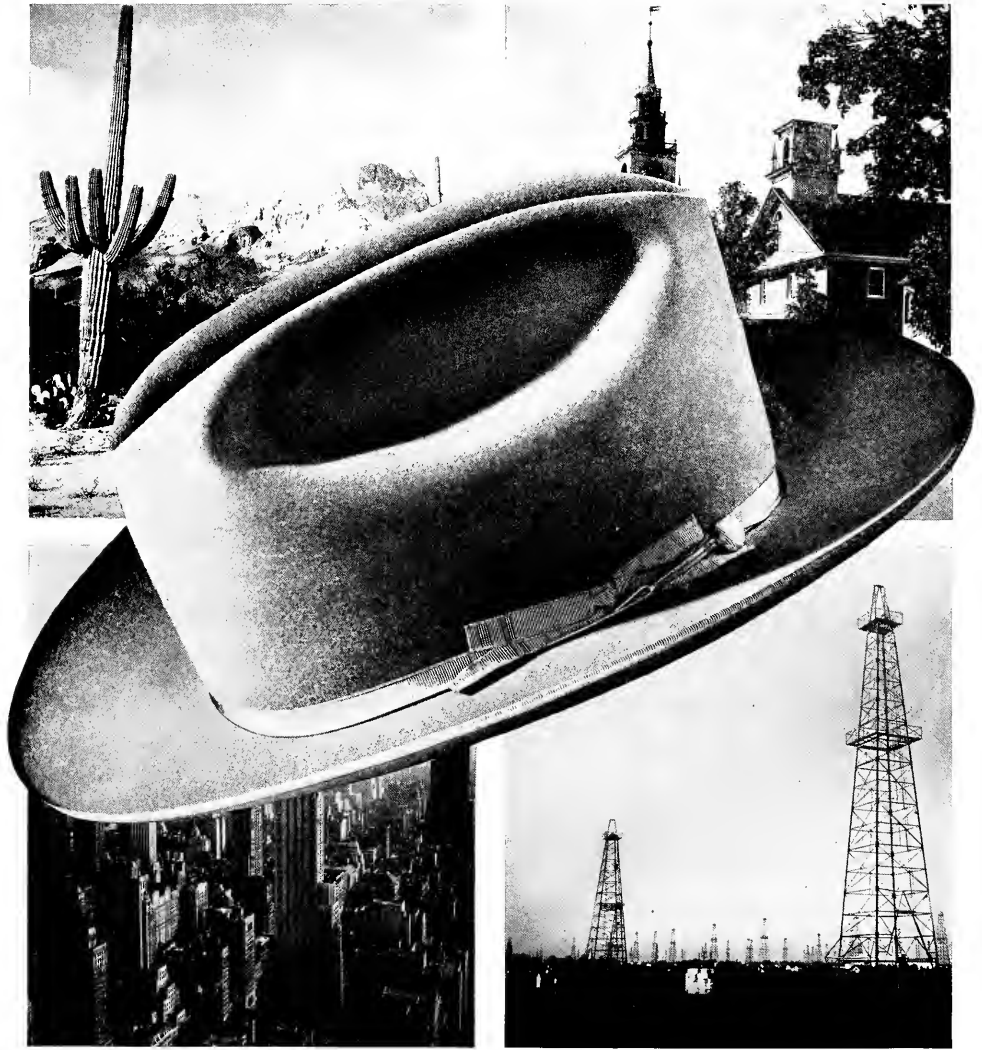

DeLand is located in the ridge section of east central Florida, 110 miles south of Jacksonville, four miles east to the picturesque St. Johns River, famous for its black bass fishing, and twenty-two miles to the renowned beaches of the Atlantic seaboard. Being centrally located practically every point of interest in the state may be visited within one day's drive.

DeLand enjoys a delightful year-round climate. There is scarcely a day that the sun does not shine, sending forth its ultra-violet rays. Children grow strong and sun-tanned, the older people add years to their life's span. DeLand is a beautiful city, appealing to those of educational and cultural background. It is a friendly city—a city you will like.
